Mo's Gentle Echo

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, cello

Verse 1

A little mix with eyes so bright,
You walked into my lonely night.
So independent, strong and true,
A people pup, I fell for you.
You didn't know you saved my soul,
Making my broken spirit whole.
My small rescuer, sweet and kind,
The truest friend I'd ever find.

Chorus

Oh, Mo, my Moses, soft and dear,
Though just two years, you banished fear.
Your love remains a gentle glow,
A part of me, where'er I go.

Verse 2

Each evening, as the day would cease,
You'd settle in, bringing peace.
My old recliner, worn and deep,
A sacred vow we used to keep.
You loved new friends, and tasty treats,
Small, happy barks on busy streets.
Always searching for a happy sound,
The sweetest spirit could be found.

Chorus

Oh, Mo, my Moses, soft and dear,
Though just two years, you banished fear.

Mo's Gentle Echo (continued)

Your love remains a gentle glow,
A part of me, where'er I go.

Bridge

I'm so sorry, little dude, I whisper low,
The hardest part, to watch you go.
But I will see you, this I know is true,
And I will bring fresh chicken just for you.

Instrumental - piano, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Mo, my Moses, soft and dear,
Though just two years, you banished fear.
Your love remains a gentle glow,
A part of me, where'er I go.

Outro

Now chasing dreams on skies so wide,
With chicken scraps, right by your side.
Meeting new friends, so happy and free,
Until you're waiting there for me.

Outro - cello fade
