Delilah's Sweet Celebration

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

I recall the day we first met, your big smiling face,
A giant heart with such an endearing grace.
Massive head, with eyes of yellow, shining bright,
You'd nudge me gently, morning, noon, and night.
A mighty shove, your sweet request for a treat,
Lifting me off my two weary feet.
A French Mastiff's love, so grand and so true,
My world was forever brighter, thanks to you.

Chorus

Oh, Delilah, my sweet girl, five years we shared,
Every moment with you, beyond compare.
Though tears may fall, my heart still sings your name,
You filled my life with joy, a beautiful flame.

Verse 2

Every single day with you was my favorite time,
Our quiet moments, truly sublime.
Cuddling close in bed, a comforting sight,
Your gentle snore a lullaby through the night.
You were always there, a shadow by my side,
Now just a memory, though nowhere to hide.
Your funny quirks, your loving, loyal way,
I cherish every single passing day.

Chorus

Oh, Delilah, my sweet girl, five years we shared,
Every moment with you, beyond compare.

Delilah's Sweet Celebration (continued)

Though tears may fall, my heart still sings your name,
You filled my life with joy, a beautiful flame.

Bridge

I love you, Delilah, please come back if you can,
But in my heart and memories, you'll always stand.
Until we meet again, beyond the endless blue,
My love for you, Delilah, forever holds true.

Instrumental - acoustic guitar, light percussion

Final Chorus

Oh, Delilah, my sweet girl, five years we shared,
Every moment with you, beyond compare.
Though tears may fall, my heart still sings your name,
You filled my life with joy, a beautiful flame.

Outro

Now you're running free, with pups who crossed before,
Playing in the flowers, by a sparkling waterfall.
Greeting new arrivals, helping souls ascend,
My beautiful Delilah, without end.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade
