Bella's Softest Embrace

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, cello

Verse 1

The day you came, my baby dear,
You chased away all doubt and fear.
A little puff of purest white,
You filled my world with joy and light.
Such comfort found within your paw,
A love that knew no earthly law.
Unconditional, so true,
My heart belonged at once to you.

Chorus

Oh, Bella, my sweet Bella,
Sixteen years, a sacred spell.
You were our everything, our guiding star,
A love made real, near or far.

Verse 2

A quiet presence, always near,
You calmed my soul, erased each tear.
My perfect princess, prim and grand,
The finest dog throughout the land.
Each day with you, a special grace,
Your loving warmth in every space.
You slept beside us, soft and deep,
Your gentle breath, my soul to keep.

Chorus

Oh, Bella, my sweet Bella,
Sixteen years, a sacred spell.

You were our everything, our guiding star,
A love made real, near or far.

Verse 3

A quiet presence, soft and true,
No thought of dog, just precious you.
No lick, no bark, a silent grace,
You found your loving, special place.
Our fluff ball, comfort, baby sweet,
You made our happiness complete.
One loving hug, a tender sign,
Sixteen years, a love divine.

Bridge

Mommy's heart is broken now you're gone, my love,
But comfort whispers from above.
No longer pain, my baby, rest and sleep,
A promise that my soul will keep.
Go find your pink bed, soft and new,
Mommy loves you, through and through.

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Bella, my sweet Bella,
Sixteen years, a sacred spell.
You were our everything, our guiding star,
A love made real, near or far.

Outro

Now in your bed, where sunbeams play,
You rest in peace throughout the day.
Still close to Mommy, warm and bright,
Sleeping in the softest light.

Outro - piano fade
