Tinkerbell's Soul Song

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, mandolin

Verse 1

I remember the first time, a tiny girl so small,
Curled up beside me on the couch, answering love's call.
Then the crinkle of a snack bag, a sound you knew so well,
You'd dance in happy circles, casting a joyful spell.

Chorus

Oh, Tinkerbell, my sweet dear friend,
Ten short years, a journey to the end.
But every moment cherished, a love so pure and true,
Forever in my heart, my precious little you.

Verse 2

It didn't matter if I'd been gone a minute or two hours,
Your loud bark greeted me always, an honest show of powers.
A tiny body full of love, a spirit bright and bold,
More warmth than any story ever could unfold.

Chorus

Oh, Tinkerbell, my sweet dear friend,
Ten short years, a journey to the end.
But every moment cherished, a love so pure and true,
Forever in my heart, my precious little you.

Bridge

My soul dog, I love you more than words can explain,
You brought such joy and comfort, easing every pain.
A bond so deep and sacred, unwavering and true,

There'll never be another, quite like you.

Mandolin Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Tinkerbell, my sweet dear friend,
Ten short years, a journey to the end.
But every moment cherished, a love so pure and true,
Forever in my heart, my precious little you.

Outro

Now I see you on the deck, bathed in the golden sun,
Then running up the green hill, with Gizmo on the run.
Peaceful and free forever, my love will still embrace,
An angel in the sunshine, finding your happy place.

Forever in our hearts
