Jack's Loving Watch

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

I remember the first time, your loyal heart so clear,
A tiny shadow, banishing all fear.
Behind me in the kitchen, a gentle, watchful paw,
Waiting for a morsel, defying every law.
Your little Pomchi spirit, so fiercely true and bold,
A story of protection, more precious than pure gold.

Chorus

Oh, Jack, my sweet companion, my buddy through and through,
Ten loving years we shared, a bond forever new.
Your memory, a comfort, a whisper in the breeze,
You brought my heart such joy and put my soul at ease.

Verse 2

The quiet evenings gathered, against me on the sofa, warm,
Safe within your presence, weathering every storm.
Your soft fur on my arm, a moment I recall,
The peace you always offered, answering every call.
My little furry friend, so happy just to be,
Sharing every silence, just you and only me.

Chorus

Oh, Jack, my sweet companion, my buddy through and through,
Ten loving years we shared, a bond forever new.
Your memory, a comfort, a whisper in the breeze,
You brought my heart such joy and put my soul at ease.

Jack's Loving Watch (continued)

Oh, I love you, buddy, those words I used to say,
I wish you still were here, each and every day.
A part of me went with you, when you had to take your flight,
Holding on to memories, shining ever so bright.

Instrumental - acoustic guitar, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Jack, my sweet companion, my buddy through and through,
Ten loving years we shared, a bond forever new.
Your memory, a comfort, a whisper in the breeze,
You brought my heart such joy and put my soul at ease.

Outro

Now you're free and happy, chasing dreams above,
But I know you're still searching, for our unending love.
Resting peacefully now, beneath the starry sky,
My sweet, dear Jack, my buddy, I'll love you 'til I die.

Outro - piano fade
