Suesue's Gentle Journey

A Tribute Song

Intro - fingerpicked guitar, synth pads

Verse 1

You were my ride or die, a tiny loyal friend,
Through every journey, right until the end.
Cross country miles, just me and my sweet girl,
You were my whole heart, the center of my world.

Chorus

Oh, Suesue, my love, sixteen years so bright,
You filled my days with warmth and pure delight.
A faithful shadow, precious and so small,
My little chihuahua, standing strong through all.

Verse 2

Each morning sun, a gentle, sleepy sigh,
You'd wander out, beneath a waking sky.
Then wait for me, a loving, patient plea,
For morning kisses, just for you and me.

Chorus

Oh, Suesue, my love, sixteen years so bright,
You filled my days with warmth and pure delight.
A faithful shadow, precious and so small,
My little chihuahua, standing strong through all.

Bridge

My final whisper, soft and full of tears,
"Go to daddy," to quiet all my fears.
"He's waiting right there, my love, I'll see you soon,"

Beneath the starlight, or the gentle moon.

Instrumental - cello, synth pads

Final Chorus

Oh, Suesue, my love, sixteen years so bright,
You filled my days with warmth and pure delight.

A faithful shadow, precious and so small,
My little chihuahua, standing strong through all.

Outro

Now playing free, with daddy, loved and true,
Your brother dogs and grandma welcome you.

A happy reunion, beyond the furthest star,
Rest peacefully, wherever you are.
