Custom Pet Memorial Songs

Lucky Dog's Wildflower Field

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

I remember the first time, a simple song I'd sing,
You'd listen close with bright eyes, my heart would softly spring.
A little Boston Rat Terrier, with love so pure and deep,
You gave your whole heart to me, secrets you would keep.

Chorus

Oh, Lucky Dog, my companion true and dear,
For twenty years, you banished every fear.
A bond unbreakable, a love that will always stay,
Thank you, my Lucky Dog, for every single day.

Verse 2

Each morning, the gentle ritual, as the sunlight softly crept,
Drinking our morning tea, a quiet vow we kept.
Your head upon my lap, a comforting presence near,
Chasing away the lonely moments, making life so clear.

Chorus

Oh, Lucky Dog, my companion true and dear,
For twenty years, you banished every fear.
A bond unbreakable, a love that will always stay,
Thank you, my Lucky Dog, for every single day.

Bridge

Through passing seasons, through laughter and through tears,
Your faithful heart unwavering, calming all my fears.
And if I could whisper just one last truth to send,

Lucky Dog's Wildflower Field (continued)

I'm so lucky to have a Lucky Dog, my truest, dearest friend.

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Lucky Dog, my companion true and dear,
For twenty years, you banished every fear.
A bond unbreakable, a love that will always stay,
Thank you, my Lucky Dog, for every single day.

Outro

Now I see you running free, in fields of sunlit gold,
A beautiful wildflower meadow, a story to unfold.
Waiting patiently, beneath the skies so wide and blue,
My Lucky Dog, my love, till I can be with you.

Outro - guitar fade
