Verse 1

From the moment you looked into my eyes,
A Lab and a Wolfhound, a gentle surprise.
Your big heart opened, a trust so pure,
A love like a beacon, forever secure.

Chorus

Oh Phoebe, sweet girl, nine years we knew,
Every adventure, every dream came true.
Now the road stretches on, under skies so wide,
Forever you're walking right by my side.

Verse 2

Through winding roads and sunlit trails,
To Clara's house, where love never fails.
All day, every day, you were right there with me,
A constant companion, wild and free.

Chorus

Oh Phoebe, sweet girl, nine years we knew,
Every adventure, every dream came true.
Now the road stretches on, under skies so wide,

Forever you're walking right by my side.

Verse 3

The soft morning nudge, the wag of your tail,
A happy bark echoing, through sunshine or gale.
Each step that you took, a comfort profound,
The dearest companion, the best I had found.

Chorus

Oh Phoebe, sweet girl, nine years we knew,
Every adventure, every dream came true.
Now the road stretches on, under skies so wide,
Forever you're walking right by my side.

Verse 4

A silent observer, a watchful, kind eye,
Beneath sunny mornings, or clouds in the sky.
Your head on my lap, a comforting weight,
Our quiet connection, sealed by our fate.

Chorus

Oh Phoebe, sweet girl, nine years we knew,
Every adventure, every dream came true.
Now the road stretches on, under skies so wide,
Forever you're walking right by my side.

Bridge

The quiet still moments, I hold them so dear,
A gentle whisper, so loud and so clear.
I love and miss you, sweet girl, it's true,
My heart still longs for a moment with you.

Mandolin Solo

Final Chorus

Oh Phoebe, sweet girl, nine years we knew,
Every adventure, every dream came true.
Now the road stretches on, under skies so wide,
Forever you're walking right by my side.

Outro

Now you're running free, with friends by your side,
Across open fields, with nothing to hide.

A happy bark echoing, a spirit unbound,
Phoebe, my love, on hallowed ground.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade
