Easton's Sunlit Run

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

I remember your big brown eyes, so deep and true
A silent promise, 'Mama, I'm devoted to you.'
An English Lab, my shadow, always by my side
Snuggled close upon the couch, nowhere to hide.
Every step I took, you followed, without a doubt
My loyal friend, what love you always gave out.

Chorus

Easton, my sweet boy, 11 amazing years
You filled my life with sunshine, chasing away the fears.
Though tears may fall, my heart remembers every joyful sound
The greatest love a family ever found.

Verse 2

Our mornings started bright with coffee and a cuddle, soft and warm
Then your head upon my lap, keeping me safe from harm.
At my desk, you'd guard my chair, a watchman ever true
And when my car pulled in, you always knew.
A wagging tail, a happy smile, greeting me at the door
Evenings spent together, wanting nothing more.

Chorus

Easton, my sweet boy, 11 amazing years
You filled my life with sunshine, chasing away the fears.
Though tears may fall, my heart remembers every joyful sound
The greatest love a family ever found.

Verse 3

Easton's Sunlit Run (continued)

Your velvety soft ears I'd twirl, you'd gently fall asleep
With belly rubs and back scratches, our loving bond ran deep.
Crunching sticks and branches, a happy winter quest
For mama's treats and pup cups, you loved those moments best.
You'd hug my leg with a sweet paw, a gentle, loyal friend
Until we meet again, my boy, my love will never end.

Bridge

Run free now, my Scoobs, no more pain to bear
Play your heart out, roll in grass, with sun and water there.
Eat those duck heads, all the cookies you can find
Watch over us, send a sign, leave worries far behind.
I'll see you again someday, my love, you'll always stay
In my heart, forever and every single day.

Instrumental - piano, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Easton, my sweet boy, 11 amazing years
You filled my life with sunshine, chasing away the fears.
Though tears may fall, my heart remembers every joyful sound
The greatest love a family ever found.

Outro

Now you're licking every treat, swimming in the sun
Playing tug-of-war, with pain and sadness gone.
Running free and happy, with not a care or fear
Still wondering, "Where's Mama?", always holding you so dear.

Outro - guitar fade

Forever in our hearts
