Jax's Sunshine Dream

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, ambient pads

Verse 1

My sweet, sweet boy, you'd greet me at the door,
A happy spirit, asking for more.
With every wag and nuzzle, so sincere,
You chased away my every doubt and fear.

Chorus

Oh, Jax, my heart still holds your name so dear,
For thirteen precious, unforgettable years.
Though silence fills the space where you once lay,
Your love shines on, a light to guide my way.

Verse 2

I'd wake to find you curled up by my side,
A silent promise, nowhere left to hide.
That unconditional love, so pure and true,
A bond unbreakable, forever me and you.
You loved the sunshine, on your fur it gleamed,
A gentle breeze, as if you truly dreamed.
Listening to the birds, a joyful, soft refrain,
Washing away the shadows, easing every pain.

Chorus

Oh, Jax, my heart still holds your name so dear,
For thirteen precious, unforgettable years.
Though silence fills the space where you once lay,
Your love shines on, a light to guide my way.

Bridge

Go run free now, with boys and Abby, light and bold,
No more pain, a story bravely told.
My sweet boy, I'll love you for all time,
In every memory, forever you are mine.

Instrumental - piano, ethereal flute

Final Chorus

Oh, Jax, my heart still holds your name so dear,
For thirteen precious, unforgettable years.
Though silence fills the space where you once lay,
Your love shines on, a light to guide my way.

Outro

Where sunshine bathes the earth, you gently roam,
Listening to birds, you've found your peaceful home.
In dreams, I see you sleeping, soft and deep,
My cherished boy, your memory I will keep.

Forever in our hearts
