Calvin's Steadfast Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - cello, piano

Verse 1

At four months old, a tiny blur,
You ran to windows, full of stir.
A little growl, a watchful sound,
Protecting all on hallowed ground.
A Belgian Lab, so strong and true,
Our family knew, we needed you.
With watchful eyes, you stood your post,
The truest guardian, we loved the most.

Chorus

Oh, Calvin, my dear, through fourteen years,
You chased away all of our fears.
A loyal heart, a gentle soul,
You made our broken spirits whole.

Verse 2

Down by the Hondo, bright and wide,
Your puppy friends all by your side.
Such happy barks, a joyful play,
You brightened every single day.
With ears that perked, a wagging tail,
Your spirit strong, it would not fail.
A gentle nudge, a knowing gaze,
Through all our life's connected maze.

Chorus

Oh, Calvin, my dear, through fourteen years,
You chased away all of our fears.

Calvin's Steadfast Heart (continued)

A loyal heart, a gentle soul,
You made our broken spirits whole.

Bridge

Run free now, love, with no more pain,
Until we meet, to love again.
Forever held within my heart,
We're never truly far apart. I love you.

Instrumental - strings, french horn

Final Chorus

Oh, Calvin, my dear, through fourteen years,
You chased away all of our fears.
A loyal heart, a gentle soul,
You made our broken spirits whole.

Outro

Though you are gone, you're by my side,
In gentle memories, you reside.
Now run free, Calvin, peaceful sleep,
The promises our hearts will keep.

Outro - strings fade
