Hamish's Morning Watch

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

The sky was grey, the rain came down, on that unforgettable day,
Two little Westies, new to town, showed us a brand new way.
With tiny paws and coats so white, a sister by your side,
You brought such joy, a hopeful light, with nowhere left to hide.
A curious sniff, a playful bark, a spirit so untamed,
You left your paw print on my heart, a love that can't be blamed.
So small and feisty, full of grace, ready for every quest,
You found your forever loving place, and put our souls at rest.

Chorus

Oh, Hamish, my dear, my faithful friend, through sun and pouring rain,
Fifteen and a half years, right to the end, easing every pain.
My little prince, with a heart so true, a love that will not fade,
Every memory, a gift from you, a precious serenade.

Verse 2

Each morning light, a gentle call, I'd wake to greet the day,
And find you waiting in the hall, ready to come and play.
Your bright eyes fixed upon the door, a wagging, happy tail,
A loyal friend I could adore, through every passing gale.
A tiny shadow, always near, a comforting presence felt,
Chasing away my every fear, the hand that I had dealt.
Your quiet vigil, calm and deep, a bond beyond compare,
Sweet secrets that our hearts would keep, suspended in the air.

Chorus

Oh, Hamish, my dear, my faithful friend, through sun and pouring rain,
Fifteen and a half years, right to the end, easing every pain.

My little prince, with a heart so true, a love that will not fade,
Every memory, a gift from you, a precious serenade.

Bridge

I love you always and forever, my little prince, it's true,
Our bond, no force can ever sever, a love that saw me through.
Your gentle soul, a guiding star, shining bright above,
No matter how far you are, you're wrapped in endless love.

Harmonica solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Hamish, my dear, my faithful friend, through sun and pouring rain,
Fifteen and a half years, right to the end, easing every pain.
My little prince, with a heart so true, a love that will not fade,
Every memory, a gift from you, a precious serenade.

Outro

Now running free with Daisy and Peg, and Bonnie by your side,
No pain or sorrow, no more dread, with nothing left to hide.
Watching Magic, watching Sadie, with Mum and Dad so near,
A peaceful heaven, calm and steady, banishing every tear.
My little Westie, pure of heart, in fields of endless green,
Though we are physically apart, your loving spirit's seen.
I feel your joy, your happy leap, across the golden shore,
In slumber gentle, soft and deep, forevermore.

Outro - guitar fade
