MacIntosh's Gentle Watch

A Tribute Song

Intro - soft piano, synth pads

Verse 1

Fifteen years ago, a fluffy white delight
A loyal heart, shining ever so bright
A faithful friend, always by my side
Nowhere to go, no reason to hide
A little shadow, a joyful, soft embrace
Bringing warmth and comfort to every place
With wagging tail and eyes so keen
The best companion I had ever seen.

Chorus

Oh, MacIntosh, fifteen beautiful years
You chased away all my worries and fears
A love so pure, a bond so deep
Precious memories that my heart will keep.

Verse 2

Each morning light, you'd see me to the door
Then waited patient, asking nothing more
Anticipating that familiar sound
Until my car on the driveway was found
A happy bark, a welcome soft and low
A greeting gesture, a loving hello
Through every season, sun or gentle rain
You'd ease the day, and soothe away the pain.

Chorus

Oh, MacIntosh, fifteen beautiful years
You chased away all my worries and fears

A love so pure, a bond so deep
Precious memories that my heart will keep.

Verse 3

In quiet moments, a gentle, soft sigh
You'd rest beside me, as hours drifted by
A furry heartbeat, always close to my own
A silent comfort, a love clearly shown
No grand gestures, just a steady, calm grace
A loving spirit in its rightful place
Your quiet presence, through laughter and tears
A constant comfort throughout all the years.

Bridge

Your loyalty and affection, a forever memory I hold
A story of devotion, more precious than gold
In every moment, your gentle spirit shown
The truest love I've ever known.

Instrumental - cello melody, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, MacIntosh, fifteen beautiful years
You chased away all my worries and fears
A love so pure, a bond so deep
Precious memories that my heart will keep.

Outro

Now resting softly, curled up in sweet repose
Dreaming gently, as the quiet evening flows
Sleeping peacefully, until the morning's light
My dear MacIntosh, goodnight, goodnight.

Outro - piano fade, synth pads
