Hailey's Rainbow Run

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

The day I found you, five years old and small,
It felt like destiny, answering freedom's call.
You'd greet me at the door, on hind legs you would leap,
A joyful little Pom-chi, secrets you would keep.
When friends dog came along, your toys you shared with grace,
You learned to be a sister, in your own special place.
Though you let her stay, you knew it to be true,
The main dog of the house, my sweet girl, was always you.

Chorus

Oh, Hailey, my sweet girl, five years we shared and grew,
Every moment a treasure, bright and shiny new.
You filled my days with sunshine, chased away all fears,
My little loyal shadow, through all those happy years.

Verse 2

Your special spot on the couch, always just for you,
And every night beside me, your dreams would see me through.
No matter where I wandered, you'd follow close behind,
Even in the bathroom, your presence I would find.
Then Annslee came along, a protector you became,
Guarding her so gently, whispering her name.
A loyal little spirit, with courage and with grace,
You made our house a home, a truly happy place.

Chorus

Oh, Hailey, my sweet girl, five years we shared and grew,
Every moment a treasure, bright and shiny new.

You filled my days with sunshine, chased away all fears,
My little loyal shadow, through all those happy years.

Bridge

And when my time is over, I whisper and I pray,
Wait for me, my darling, to greet me on that day.
Give me all your kisses, and let our spirits fly,
Together once again, beneath the endless sky.

Instrumental - ukulele, acoustic guitar, light percussion

Final Chorus

Oh, Hailey, my sweet girl, five years we shared and grew,
Every moment a treasure, bright and shiny new.
You filled my days with sunshine, chased away all fears,
My little loyal shadow, through all those happy years.

Outro

Now you run on the Rainbow Bridge, so free and light and fast,
With Clyde and Bre-Bre, and Puddin, a love that's built to last.
Like puppies once again, no worries, no more pain,
Just joy in every stride, until we meet again.

Outro - ukulele fade
