Precious Baby's Gentle Watch

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

From the moment you arrived, a tiny, loving friend
You settled in our arms, a comfort without end
Your soft fur against my skin, a sweet and gentle plea
For belly rubs and cuddles, just you and daddy.
You were more than just a pet, a spirit strong and true
Our emotional support, in all that we went through.
Your tiny nose could sense the things we couldn't see
A guardian angel sent, Precious Baby.

Chorus

Oh, Precious Baby, eleven years of grace
A love that filled our home, in every single space.
We miss your loving heart, your watchful, tender gaze
You light our darkest nights, and warm our lonely days.

Verse 2

I remember evening strolls, as day began to fade
We'd watch the quiet sunset, by peaceful nature made.
You'd lie there in the grass, just soaking up the rays
Observing blades grow slowly, in gentle, golden haze.
You knew when sugar climbed, a warning soft and clear
And even when a stroke was drawing swiftly near.
The best dog ever, true, we miss you terribly
A part of everything, you still belong to me.

Chorus

Oh, Precious Baby, eleven years of grace
A love that filled our home, in every single space.

Precious Baby's Gentle Watch (continued)

We miss your loving heart, your watchful, tender gaze
You light our darkest nights, and warm our lonely days.

Verse 3

Your wisdom went beyond what human eyes could see,
A tiny paw that pointed, so wisely, lovingly.
You found the hidden trouble, when no one understood,
A silent warning given, for daddy's precious good.
You saved me in a way that words can't truly tell,
A guardian, always watchful, within our loving spell.

Chorus

Oh, Precious Baby, eleven years of grace
A love that filled our home, in every single space.
We miss your loving heart, your watchful, tender gaze
You light our darkest nights, and warm our lonely days.

Bridge

Now you're waiting by the gates, so bright and shining new
Still keeping watch for Daddy, as you always used to do.
We whisper to the sky, a promise deep and true
Watch those big doors, dear heart, we'll be there soon, we love you.

Instrumental - cello, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Precious Baby, eleven years of grace
A love that filled our home, in every single space.
We miss your loving heart, your watchful, tender gaze
You light our darkest nights, and warm our lonely days.

Outro

We see you barking fiercely at the mailman passing by
Then lying in the sun, beneath a peaceful sky.
Sleeping soundly now, your sweet heart takes its rest
Our Precious Baby, truly, the very best.

Outro - guitar fade

Forever in our hearts
