Harley's Morning Song

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar

Verse 1

The sound I miss, a rhythmic beat,
Your nails on tile, so crisp and sweet.
Click-click, click-click, upon the floor,
Greeting me when I walked through the door.
A pitbull heart, so strong and true,
Each day begun, just me and you.
Long morning walks, a gentle pace,
A smile upon your happy face.

Chorus

Oh, Harley, dear Harley, my steadfast friend,
Twelve wonderful years, until the end.
In every memory, you brightly shine,
A love like yours, forever mine.

Verse 2

Those early walks, as dawn would break,
New paths and trails, for goodness sake.
We'd share the quiet, calm and deep,
Secrets that only we would keep.
Then curled up close, as day grew late,
Cuddled tight, sealing our fate.
Your gentle snore, a peaceful sound,
The safest place I'd ever found.

Chorus

Oh, Harley, dear Harley, my steadfast friend,
Twelve wonderful years, until the end.

In every memory, you brightly shine,
A love like yours, forever mine.

Bridge

Go run free, my love, beyond all pain,
Until we meet, on skies of rain.
I'll hold you close, in heart and mind,
My dearest Harley, one of a kind.
I love you, my sweet, through time and space,
We'll be together, finding our place.

Guitar Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Harley, dear Harley, my steadfast friend,
Twelve wonderful years, until the end.
In every memory, you brightly shine,
A love like yours, forever mine.

Outro

Now running free in tall green grass,
Your joyful spirit built to last.
Swimming in the cool clear pool,
With Miyoko and Hime, breaking every rule.
Peaceful slumber, no more strife,
Living your best afterlife.

Outro - guitar fade
