Chaya Lynn's Wild Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

I remember your zoomies, a blur of tiny feet
And the way your little paws would stomp when you wanted something sweet
You always found your purse, just knew I'd go away
A little Chihuahua, brightening every day

Chorus

Oh, Chaya Lynn, my sweet and loyal friend
Seventeen long years, right up until the end
My heart still aches, a love so deep and true
There'll never be another one like you

Verse 2

We'd ride out on the horse, you'd sit there brave and small
Or chase along with Zip, answering nature's call
You thought you were a cattle dog, though barely three pounds strong
Then snuggled in my lap, right where you always belonged

Chorus

Oh, Chaya Lynn, my sweet and loyal friend
Seventeen long years, right up until the end
My heart still aches, a love so deep and true
There'll never be another one like you

Bridge

Thank you for loving me, a big part of my life
I'm broken without you, through all this sorrow and strife
I just want to hold you close, and kiss your precious face

Chaya Lynn's Wild Heart (continued)

One last warm embrace, in this empty, lonely space

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Chaya Lynn, my sweet and loyal friend
Seventeen long years, right up until the end
My heart still aches, a love so deep and true
There'll never be another one like you

Outro

Now you've found sweet Sadie, just like I always hoped Sleeping on her belly, where your tiny paws once coped
Watching over me now, my tiny soul so bright
Run free, little Chaya, in the endless golden light

Outro - guitar fade

Forever in our hearts
