Einstein's Guiding Light

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

From the moment our eyes met, I knew it was true
A furry soulmate, a bond fresh and new
Your Himalayan beauty, a sight to behold
A gentle spirit, more precious than gold
Fifteen years of quiet joy, a love so profound
The sweetest companion I ever had found
With sapphire eyes and soft purrs you'd grace
A tender presence in time and in space

Chorus

Oh, Einstein, my love, fifteen years by my side
You were my shadow, my comfort, my pride
Though you've journeyed beyond, to stars shining bright
You remain in my heart, my own guiding light

Verse 2

Each evening when I'd return, tired from the day
You'd jump on the dining table, in your own special way
Waiting patiently there, for your daily embrace
For a big loving kiss, a smile on my face
A nightly ritual, a moment so sweet
A cherished reunion, both tender and neat
Your soft fur against mine, a comforting sign
This beautiful connection, forever defined

Chorus

Oh, Einstein, my love, fifteen years by my side
You were my shadow, my comfort, my pride

Though you've journeyed beyond, to stars shining bright
You remain in my heart, my own guiding light

Bridge

Now you're playing freely with sisters above
Sweet Elsa and Greta Garbo, surrounded by love
In fields of forever, where sunbeams still gleam
You live on in my heart, like a beautiful dream
I'm coming to join you one day, my dear one
When my journey on earth is finally done

Instrumental - strings, oboe

Final Chorus

Oh, Einstein, my love, fifteen years by my side
You were my shadow, my comfort, my pride
Though you've journeyed beyond, to stars shining bright
You remain in my heart, my own guiding light

Outro - cello fade

Playing with your sisters, beneath endless skies
A peaceful sweet slumber, reflecting your eyes
Forever in heaven, forever you'll run
My dearest Einstein, my beautiful one.

Forever in our hearts
