Ziggy's Window Ride

A Tribute Song

---

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

I remember first seeing you, a young Malinois so keen,
Laying on the back porch, a peaceful, loyal scene.
Then sleeping by my feet each night, a comfort in my bed,
A gentle, furry guardian, loving words unsaid.
We'd hit the road together, no journey too far to roam,
Your head out of the window, bringing joy all the way home.

Chorus

Oh, Ziggy, my dear boy, for four and a half years we shone,
My loyal, brave companion, now you've gone to your own.
A love so pure and boundless, a spirit wild and free,
Forever in my heart, Ziggy, you'll always be with me.

Verse 2

Every single moment, a day-long, sweet embrace,
Retired and together, you filled my empty space.
With holding close and kisses, upon your noble head,
A bond so deep and honest, words often left unsaid.
It feels too soon, my sweet boy, this quiet, empty room,
A shadow cast so suddenly, dispelling all the bloom.

Chorus

Oh, Ziggy, my dear boy, for four and a half years we shone,
My loyal, brave companion, now you've gone to your own.
A love so pure and boundless, a spirit wild and free,
Forever in my heart, Ziggy, you'll always be with me.

Verse 3

Ziggy's Window Ride (continued)

We'd lay upon the living room floor, side by side,
A silent understanding, nowhere left to hide.
That Memorial Day morning, as the new day shone bright,
I felt your final breath, extinguishing my light.
The tears still fall like rainfall, a constant, heavy stream,
For my love for you, dear Ziggy, was more than just a dream.

Chorus

Oh, Ziggy, my dear boy, for four and a half years we shone,
My loyal, brave companion, now you've gone to your own.
A love so pure and boundless, a spirit wild and free,
Forever in my heart, Ziggy, you'll always be with me.

Verse 4

You loved to help me make the bed, tucked beneath the sheet,
And window panes still bear your nose art, a memory bittersweet.
I'd watch you by the front door, just gazing at the street,
Then drifting off to dreamland, your loyal heart complete.
These simple, cherished moments, a comfort and a grace,
Now echo in the quiet of this empty, quiet space.

Chorus

Oh, Ziggy, my dear boy, for four and a half years we shone,
My loyal, brave companion, now you've gone to your own.
A love so pure and boundless, a spirit wild and free,
Forever in my heart, Ziggy, you'll always be with me.

Bridge

I whisper in the silence, though you're beyond my sight,
"I love you so very much, Ziggy," with all my heart and might.
That love will live inside me, a beacon ever bright,
Guiding me through darkness, and into morning light.

Instrumental - banjo, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Ziggy, my dear boy, for four and a half years we shone,
My loyal, brave companion, now you've gone to your own.
A love so pure and boundless, a spirit wild and free,
Forever in my heart, Ziggy, you'll always be with me.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade

Now sleeping in the shade, beneath a strong, tall tree,

Soaking up the sunshine, for all eternity.
Playing with old Scooter, a joyous, happy sound,
You're waiting patiently, until we meet again on hallowed ground.

Forever in our hearts
