Oscar's Doorway Light

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

I remember the day you first came home to me
A little black schnauzer, as cute as could be
With sparkling eyes and a tiny little bark
You filled every corner, leaving your sweet mark
Those full-body wiggles, a joy to behold
Your happy "shuggies," a story untold
My heart was captured, right from the start
A tiny companion, a work of art

Chorus

Oh, Oscar, my dear friend, twelve years by my side
Through laughter and tears, you were my loyal guide
A constant presence, a love pure and true
My world was brighter, simply because of you.

Verse 2

No matter the day, or how long I was gone
The sound of my key, your welcome so strong
A blur of black fur, by the door you would wait
Your happy excitement, never too late
A wagging tail symphony, a bark of delight
You'd meet me with passion, shining so bright
My faithful shadow, a presence so dear
Chasing away every doubt and every fear.

Chorus

Oh, Oscar, my dear friend, twelve years by my side
Through laughter and tears, you were my loyal guide

Oscar's Doorway Light (continued)

A constant presence, a love pure and true
My world was brighter, simply because of you.

Bridge

Now go run and play, in your new body so free
Unburdened by pain, for all eternity
I love you so much, my sweet beautiful baby
My heart holds your memory, come what may.

Instrumental - harmonica, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Oscar, my dear friend, twelve years by my side
Through laughter and tears, you were my loyal guide
A constant presence, a love pure and true
My world was brighter, simply because of you.

Outro - acoustic guitar, harmonica fade

Now you are running, free and playing bright
My sweet Oscar, bathed in endless light.

Forever in our hearts
