Sayna's Golden Sun

A Tribute Song

Intro - Ukulele, light percussion

Verse 1

I remember sunlight on your fur, so bright and free,
Sunbathing softly on the sand beside the sea.
A tiny shadow following, with joy in every sound,
As we walked around the block, the happiest dog in town.
Then a visit to Nan's, a special treat for you,
Chicken noodle soup, a comfort, warm and true.
Each step you took, a pitter-patter, light and quick,
You charmed us all, with every loving lick.

Chorus

Oh, Sayna, Sayna, our golden sun, a guiding light,
Fourteen years of laughter, making everything so bright.
Though tears may fall, we'll celebrate the joy you gave,
The precious love within our hearts, forever we will save.

Verse 2

The morning started with your sweet and gentle yawn,
A little wiggle, greeting us right with the dawn.
Ready for our walk, your leash held tight in hand,
Exploring every corner of this loving land.
Then breakfast time, a happy ritual we shared,
Each moment with you, perfectly prepared.
Your playful spirit, never fading, strong and bold,
A story in your eyes, more precious than pure gold.

Chorus

Oh, Sayna, Sayna, our golden sun, a guiding light,
Fourteen years of laughter, making everything so bright.

Though tears may fall, we'll celebrate the joy you gave,
The precious love within our hearts, forever we will save.

Bridge

My heart aches now, my sweet, I'm sorry, I must say,
I love you so much, wishing you were here today.
I wish I could cuddle you, just one more loving time,
To hold you close, beyond the reach of space and rhyme.

Instrumental - Acoustic guitar solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Sayna, Sayna, our golden sun, a guiding light,
Fourteen years of laughter, making everything so bright.
Though tears may fall, we'll celebrate the joy you gave,
The precious love within our hearts, forever we will save.

Outro

Now in heaven's fields, with Grandpa, Nevaeh, and Megatron,
You're running free and happy, from dusk until the dawn.
Watching over us all, with a gentle wagging tail,
Our Sayna, in our hearts, your love will never fail.

Outro - Ukulele fade

Forever in our hearts
