Strider's Gentle Spirit

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

A sable coat, a faithful friend, you grew right by my side,
From knee-hole desk to foot of bed, my comfort and my guide.
Though you grew tall, your spirit stayed so gentle, soft, and true,
Your heavy head across my ankles, a warmth I always knew.

Chorus

Oh, Strider, Strider, what a gift, those twelve incredible years,
You filled my life with quiet joy, and calmed away my fears.
A celebration of the love that blossomed, strong and deep,
Forever in my heart, my friend, your memory I'll keep.

Verse 2

You joined me daily at my work, a priest's devoted friend,
So quiet, reverent, by my side, a presence to the end.
You knew the ancient prayers so well, with wisdom in your gaze,
Understanding what was sacred, through all our hallowed days.

Chorus

Oh, Strider, Strider, what a gift, those twelve incredible years,
You filled my life with quiet joy, and calmed away my fears.
A celebration of the love that blossomed, strong and deep,
Forever in my heart, my friend, your memory I'll keep.

Verse 3

With Gracie's manners, Moses' playful might,
You learned your lessons, shining ever bright.
Your heart was led by love, no treat could sway,

A gentle soul, you'd know just what to say.
You raised two pups, not your own, with grace,
A gentleman, from sole to crown, in every place.

Bridge

A final whisper, soft and true, "My loved ones, I'll be waiting for you.
When it is time, just come for me, and we'll be together, wild and free."
My love for you will never fade, a promise that I hold,
Your gentle spirit guides my way, a story to be told.

Instrumental - piano, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Strider, Strider, what a gift, those twelve incredible years,
You filled my life with quiet joy, and calmed away my fears.
A celebration of the love that blossomed, strong and deep,
Forever in my heart, my friend, your memory I'll keep.

Outro

Now Moe and Gracie wait for you, with Peaches sweet and bright,
And Fergus joins the Hole in Fence, bathed in eternal light.
Running free and tails a-wagging, happy, whole, and sound,
My Strider's gentle spirit roams, on hallowed, joyful ground.

Outro - guitar fade
