Verse 1

I remember the first night we shared a quiet space
Your warm body against mine, a sturdy, calm embrace
With your heavy bulldog presence, a comforting, soft sound
Your butt against my back, the safest spot around
You snored a gentle rhythm, chasing dreams unseen
My loyal, watchful partner, a peaceful, loving king
A protector in the darkness, a shadow at my side
With you, I felt so peaceful, nothing to hide.

Chorus

Oh, Glock, my sweet old friend, for six precious years you stayed
Every memory a treasure, a melody softly played
You're always in my heart, a love that won't depart
Glock, you're always in my heart.

Verse 2

Those evening moments linger, just you and me alone
Sitting on the car hood, making the world our own
Or early morning drives, the engine's quiet hum
Our silent understanding, till a new day had come
We watched the sun awaken, or stars begin to gleam

A perfect, simple quiet, like an answered, gentle dream
No need for many words, just breathing side-by-side
A bond so deep and honest, where true hearts could confide.

Chorus

Oh, Glock, my sweet old friend, for six precious years you stayed
Every memory a treasure, a melody softly played
You're always in my heart, a love that won't depart
Glock, you're always in my heart.

Verse 3

Your rumbling little snorts, a sound I miss so well
The way your eyes would brighten, a story they could tell
A happy tail-wag motion, though your gait might be slow
The steady, loyal comfort, watching our moments grow
You'd follow me around the house, just to be close by
A quiet, loving presence, beneath a trusting eye
Each day was brighter with you, a simple, certain truth
My gentle, steadfast partner, since your earliest youth.

Chorus

Oh, Glock, my sweet old friend, for six precious years you stayed
Every memory a treasure, a melody softly played
You're always in my heart, a love that won't depart
Glock, you're always in my heart.

Bridge

I miss you Mr. Doo ba too, your spirit strong and bright
You'll always be within my heart, a warm and guiding light
Till we meet again someday, across that distant shore
Lots of mooches sent your way, forever and for more.

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Glock, my sweet old friend, for six precious years you stayed
Every memory a treasure, a melody softly played
You're always in my heart, a love that won't depart
Glock, you're always in my heart.

Outro

Now you run freely, Glock, where rainbow bridges gleam
Exploring every pathway, living out your happy dream

Your hind legs strong and healthy, no limits to your stride
With all the treats you cherished, peacefully inside.

Outro - guitar fade
