

Remembering Ollie

Custom Pet Memorial Songs

Jax's Beach Day Sunset

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

I remember when your wet nose, a gentle poke,
Would nudge my side, a silent call you spoke.
You'd bring your favorite baby, a furry, well-loved friend,
To greet us at the door, right 'til the very end.
A gentle giant, everyone would always fall,
For your sweet nature, standing proud and tall.
Your eyebrows dancing when we'd share a laugh or tale,
Or wedging close when hugs would never fail.

Chorus

Oh, Jax, you spent eleven point eight years right by our side,
A love so deep and true, where gentle giants hide.
From sunny mornings to the quiet of the night,
You filled our world with laughter, comfort, and pure light.

Verse 2

When five o'clock would roll around each afternoon,
You knew the workday stopped, it was never too soon.
For sandy paws and ocean breezes, free and wide,
Our special beach time, with you always by our side.
You'd back your giant body up, so soft and slow,
To sit right on my lap, a love that helped us grow.

Chorus

Oh, Jax, you spent eleven point eight years right by our side,
A love so deep and true, where gentle giants hide.
From sunny mornings to the quiet of the night,
You filled our world with laughter, comfort, and pure light.

Jax's Beach Day Sunset (continued)

Bridge

You were so loved, and always will be in our hearts forever bright,
You gave us far more than we could ever give back, with all your might.
Thank you for fighting, for holding on so long, it's true,
Now it's time to be pain free, my sweet boy, you're through.
You'll be in my heart on every boat ride, at beach time, every minute of my life.

Instrumental - harmonica solo, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Jax, you spent eleven point eight years right by our side,
A love so deep and true, where gentle giants hide.
From sunny mornings to the quiet of the night,
You filled our world with laughter, comfort, and pure light.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade, upright bass

Now you're running free with Athena and Scout, in fields of green and wide,
No pain can touch you now, with every joyful stride.
Rest easy, sweet Jax, our love will never cease,
Just endless shores and gentle, perfect peace.

Forever in our hearts