Winky's Gentle Shadow

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, pads

Verse 1

A long grey and white whisper, soft and grand,
You'd always greet me, a paw within my hand.
Through every room, a gentle, guiding grace,
Following my footsteps, finding your dear place.

Chorus

Oh Winky, my sweet Winky, nineteen years so true,
My heart still aches for moments shared with you.
A love so pure, a bond that will not fade,
In every quiet memory, you're beautifully remade.

Verse 2

The evening light would dim, the day grown late,
We'd find our spot, sealed by a loving fate.
On the soft lounge, nestled side by side,
Your gentle purr, where all my worries died.

Chorus

Oh Winky, my sweet Winky, nineteen years so true,
My heart still aches for moments shared with you.
A love so pure, a bond that will not fade,
In every quiet memory, you're beautifully remade.

Verse 3

Through darkest days, your quiet comfort near,
Your soft fur soaked the silent, falling tear.
And when sweet Lexi joined our family's grace,

You shared that joy, finding your precious place.

Bridge

A silent wish, a plea whispered to the air,
To feel your soft fur, to smooth your silky hair.
I hope to hold you close again, some day,
And chase the lonely shadows far away.

Instrumental - cello, piano

Final Chorus

Oh Winky, my sweet Winky, nineteen years so true,
My heart still aches for moments shared with you.
A love so pure, a bond that will not fade,
In every quiet memory, you're beautifully remade.

Outro

Now watching over me from skies above,
A guardian angel, filled with endless love.
Rest peacefully, my Winky, in your softest dream,
A gentle, loving, everlasting gleam.

Outro - piano fade
