Oreo's Gentle Trot

A Tribute Song

Intro - grand piano, strings

Verse 1

I remember the barks, a sweet familiar sound,
When we walked through the door, you'd come trotting around.
And the jingle of tags, a small symphony bright,
As our tiny Chihuahua filled our home with your light.

Chorus

Oh, Oreo, our sweet friend, it's hard to let you go,
For nine precious years, our love continued to grow.
Though a silence now falls where your joyful sound once played,
In our hearts, your dear spirit will never ever fade.

Verse 2

Afternoons with Dad, a gentle, quiet ease,
Snuggled close on the couch, bringing comfort and peace.
And at night by Mom's side, a soft, loving sigh,
Watching over our dreams as the hours went by.

Chorus

Oh, Oreo, our sweet friend, it's hard to let you go,
For nine precious years, our love continued to grow.
Though a silence now falls where your joyful sound once played,
In our hearts, your dear spirit will never ever fade.

Bridge

Our hearts whisper softly, "You're finally pain free,"
A gentle release, for all the world to see.
And though we still miss you, our love carries on,

You're forever our darling, from dusk until dawn.

Instrumental - orchestral strings, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Oreo, our sweet friend, it's hard to let you go,
For nine precious years, our love continued to grow.
Though a silence now falls where your joyful sound once played,
In our hearts, your dear spirit will never ever fade.

Outro

Now you're running free around the yard so grand,
Jumping up to the couch, across the peaceful land.
Resting softly now, in a quiet, dreamless sleep,
Our dear Oreo, in our memories we'll keep.

Outro - strings fade

Forever in our hearts
