Brady's Gentle Breath

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, clarinet

Verse 1

I remember the first time, your gentle, calm gaze,
A big boy full of sweetness, through all of our days.
Watching the world from the window, a sentinel true,
Our loving companion, always there, through and through.

Chorus

Oh, Brady, our dear boy, thirteen and a half years we shared,
A love so pure and selfless, beyond all compared.
You filled every moment, with joy and with grace,
Forever etched deeply, within this heart's space.

Verse 2

The way you would greet us, a wag and a sigh,
A warm, welcome presence, beneath the blue sky.
Our walks were an adventure, a world to explore,
As you stopped to smell every new scent, and begged for more.

Chorus

Oh, Brady, our dear boy, thirteen and a half years we shared,
A love so pure and selfless, beyond all compared.
You filled every moment, with joy and with grace,
Forever etched deeply, within this heart's space.

Bridge

We loved you so deeply, you brought endless delight,
A guiding star shining, so gentle and bright.
We'll carry you always, within our true heart,

Brady's Gentle Breath (continued)

A bond never broken, though we are apart.

Instrumental - piano, pads

Final Chorus

Oh, Brady, our dear boy, thirteen and a half years we shared,
A love so pure and selfless, beyond all compared.
You filled every moment, with joy and with grace,
Forever etched deeply, within this heart's space.

Outro

Now you're walking and smelling, with no pain to bear,
Resting so peacefully, light as the air.
Dreaming of windows and walks, free and so sound,
Our sweet, gentle Brady, forever unbound.

Outro - piano fade
