Ruby's Hillside Watch

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

The first time we met, a sight pure and grand,
Your big happy smile, reaching out your paw to my hand.
So gentle and loyal, a spirit so true,
My heart knew that moment, I'd found home with you.

Chorus

Oh Ruby, dear Ruby, my shining bright star,
Fourteen precious years, no matter how far.
The love that you gave me, it will never fade,
In every sweet memory, a beautiful parade.

Verse 2

Six am's morning, the first ray of light,
Our scooby snack ritual, a comforting sight.
Those gentle soft pats, then off on our stride,
With every step taken, you walked by my side.

Chorus

Oh Ruby, dear Ruby, my shining bright star,
Fourteen precious years, no matter how far.
The love that you gave me, it will never fade,
In every sweet memory, a beautiful parade.

Bridge

I'm so sorry, my darling, I couldn't save you that day,
But now you are free, all of your pain has faded away.
Be happy, sweet girl, till we meet by and by,

You'll wait for me patiently, beneath heaven's sky.

Instrumental - strings, cello

Final Chorus

Oh Ruby, dear Ruby, my shining bright star,
Fourteen precious years, no matter how far.
The love that you gave me, it will never fade,
In every sweet memory, a beautiful parade.

Outro

Up on the hill now, you keep watch from above,
A peaceful new slumber, surrounded by love.
Your spirit runs freely, beneath heaven's bright gleam,
Forever in my heart, my beautiful dream.
