Darla's Joyful Run

A Tribute Song

---

[Intro] Acoustic guitar, ukulele

Verse 1

A gentle giant, a Bullmastiff strong,
You came into my life, where you belonged.
You snored like a trucker, a sound so deep and true,
Pretended to guard, a fierce, protective view.
But underneath that bark, a soft heart hid,
A lovey, kissy girl, on whom my heart was bid.
So much devotion, pure and freely given,
A little piece of heaven, truly driven.

Chorus

Oh, Darla, Darla, our sweet, loving friend,
Eleven wonderful years, until the very end.
Your spirit shines so brightly, a light that won't fade out,
We'll carry your warm memories, without a shadow of doubt.

Verse 2

No matter how my day would bend and sway,
You'd meet me with a cuddle, come what may.
I only had to ask, and you were there,
A gentle, furry comfort, beyond compare.
Your big brown eyes, a wisdom in their gaze,
Through happy moments and through misty haze.
Every quirk and habit, a treasure to behold,
A story in your heart, bravely told.

Chorus

Oh, Darla, Darla, our sweet, loving friend,
Eleven wonderful years, until the very end.
Your spirit shines so brightly, a light that won't fade out,

Darla's Joyful Run (continued)

We'll carry your warm memories, without a shadow of doubt.

Verse 3

The simple moments, quietly spent,
A loving presence, heaven-sent.
Your quiet comfort, a peaceful, calming art,
You played a cherished, unforgettable part.
With every gentle nudge, a love so clear,
You chased away each worry, banished every fear.
Our home felt warmer, brighter, just with you,
A loyal heart, dependable and true.

Bridge

Mommy loves you, Darla, it's true,
You will always be in my heart, forever, through and through.
A bond unbroken, a love so deep and wide,
Always here beside me, though you cannot stride.

[Instrumental] Ukulele, banjo, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Darla, Darla, our sweet, loving friend,
Eleven wonderful years, until the very end.
Your spirit shines so brightly, a light that won't fade out,
We'll carry your warm memories, without a shadow of doubt.

Outro

Now chasing squirrels with Santana, free and light,
Under sun-drenched skies, so wondrously bright.
Until we meet again, by heaven's golden shore,
Run free, my Darla, forevermore. Acoustic guitar fade.

Forever in our hearts
