Verse 1

A tiny heart, a gentle soul, so small and sweet,
Through fragrant blooms, you'd softly make your way,
A little Shih Tzu, with happy, dancing feet,
You'd sniff each petal at the close of day.
Then curl up close, a warm and furry mound,
Between our pillows, where you felt so safe,
The sweetest comfort that we ever found,
A tiny breath, a loving, soft embrace.

Chorus

Oh, sweet Daisy, our darling, precious friend,
Eleven years, a love that knew no end.
Your gentle spirit softly takes its flight,
Forever cherished, bathed in golden light.

Verse 2

Each morning sunrise, a ritual so dear,
An hour spent upon the recliner's rest,
So close beside us, banishing all fear,
Our little shadow, truly heaven blessed.
A soft sigh whispered, a moment calm and deep,
A paw upon a hand, a loving gaze,
While gentle promises we vowed to keep,

Daisy's Gentle Dream (continued)

Through sunny mornings and through hazy days.

Chorus

Oh, sweet Daisy, our darling, precious friend,
Eleven years, a love that knew no end.
Your gentle spirit softly takes its flight,
Forever cherished, bathed in golden light.

Verse 3

Your silent steps, a comfort in our days,
A happy sigh, a loving, knowing look.
Through sunlit rooms, you'd follow all our ways,
A gentle spirit, from life's sweetest book.
Each little bark, a greeting soft and low,
A furry friend, so loyal and so true,
The deepest comfort that we came to know,
Our precious Daisy, forever loving you.

Bridge

We hold your tiny ball, your little silver bell,
Each cherished echo, a story it will tell.
These precious tokens, forever we will keep,
While memories of you within our hearts run deep.

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, sweet Daisy, our darling, precious friend,
Eleven years, a love that knew no end.
Your gentle spirit softly takes its flight,
Forever cherished, bathed in golden light.

Outro

No more the thunder, no more the fiery fright,
Just quiet peace, through endless day and night.
You're napping softly, in dreams you gently roam,
Waiting for us, till we can bring you home.

Outro - piano fade

Forever in our hearts
