Gibson's Gentle Embrace

A Tribute Song

Intro - grand piano, synth pads

Verse 1

A gentle giant, you came to my door,
A loving spirit, I couldn't ignore.
Your big heart open, your love pure and true,
The best kind of hug, I received from you.
A Great Dane's comfort, a calming soft sigh,
Beneath your gaze, the world passed us by.
You'd lean in close, a comforting weight,
Filling our home with love, early and late.

Chorus

Oh, Gibson, my boobah, a light in the grey,
For seven sweet years, you brightened my day.
Your memory's a lullaby, soft and profound,
The dearest companion, on hallowed ground.

Verse 2

Those quiet afternoons, a sweet, hazy dream,
Your soft, rumbling snores, a peaceful stream.
We'd share a deep rest, without a care,
Snuggles during naps, a bond beyond compare.
Your presence a blanket, warm and so deep,
Secrets and solace, while the world fell asleep.
Such gentle moments, etched in my soul,
Making our weary hearts happy and whole.

Chorus

Oh, Gibson, my boobah, a light in the grey,
For seven sweet years, you brightened my day.

Gibson's Gentle Embrace (continued)

Your memory's a lullaby, soft and profound,
The dearest companion, on hallowed ground.

Bridge

Though seasons may turn, and years gently flow,
There's one thing in my heart, I need you to know.
I miss you so much every day, my love won't ebb,
I love you, boobah, caught in life's sweet web.

Instrumental - cello, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Gibson, my boobah, a light in the grey,
For seven sweet years, you brightened my day.
Your memory's a lullaby, soft and profound,
The dearest companion, on hallowed ground.

Outro

Now you're playing and loving, on skies bright and free,
A happy spirit, for all eyes to see.
Running with joy, where no shadows can fall,
Forever you're cherished, beyond every wall.
