Pippi, Our Sweetest Companion

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, strings

Verse 1

When you first came home, a tiny little thing,
Our Pippi, our Chihuahua, joy you would bring.
You claimed the softest spot, the center of our bed,
A little queen, by every comfort led.
You learned the Judge Judy theme, a signal clear and true,
Knowing food would fall, waiting just for you.
And when we gently held you, rocking soft and low,
That sweet contented sigh, letting all your worries go.

Chorus

Oh, Pippi, our dear Pippi, sixteen precious years,
You filled our home with laughter, chased away our fears.
A tiny heart so mighty, a spirit wild and free,
Forever in our memories, for all the world to see.

Verse 2

At bedtime, quiet moments, nestled close and deep,
Your soft fur by our side, as we drifted off to sleep.
A loyal little shadow, following us around,
And every passing stranger, knew your barking sound.
You loved your morning Cheerios, a treat with Papa shared,
A cozy nap beside us, without a single care.
Your tiny quirks and habits, a joy we'll always find,
The dearest little friend, of a truly special kind.

Chorus

Oh, Pippi, our dear Pippi, sixteen precious years,
You filled our home with laughter, chased away our fears.

A tiny heart so mighty, a spirit wild and free,
Forever in our memories, for all the world to see.

Bridge

We whisper now your name, with all our love and might,
You meant the world to us, our shining, guiding light.
You're missed with every sunrise, every day that we now face,
Your memory etched upon our hearts, a sacred, cherished place.

Instrumental - strings, flute

Final Chorus

Oh, Pippi, our dear Pippi, sixteen precious years,
You filled our home with laughter, chased away our fears.
A tiny heart so mighty, a spirit wild and free,
Forever in our memories, for all the world to see.

Outro

Now you're with Friday, playing in the sun's warm glow,
Eating Cheerios with Papa, where gentle breezes flow.
Taking peaceful naps, no more worries to impart,
Forever running free, a paw print on our heart.
