Dolly's Grassy Run

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, cello

Verse 1

I recall the sound, so soft and true,
The gentle clink of Dolly feet, just for you.
Through every room, a comforting beat,
A love story, perfectly complete.
Then you'd jump upon the bed, a familiar art,
And bump against me, right to my heart.
With floppy ears and eyes so kind,
The sweetest soul one could ever find.

Chorus

Oh, Dolly, my dear, after all these years,
Fourteen seasons erasing all fears.
Your gentle spirit forever will stay,
Guiding our hearts through each passing day.

Verse 2

Each time we walked through the door, my wife and I,
Your wagging tail, a joyful sigh.
You'd greet us there, with a happy sound,
The best companion we ever found.
A sweet tradition, a daily embrace,
Leaving warmth and joy in every space.

Chorus

Oh, Dolly, my dear, after all these years,
Fourteen seasons erasing all fears.
Your gentle spirit forever will stay,
Guiding our hearts through each passing day.

Bridge

My final whisper, softly said and true,
"Run around, dear, like when you were new."
Smelling everything, with joy in your stride,
And wait for me, my love, on the other side.

Instrumental - piano, cello

Final Chorus

Oh, Dolly, my dear, after all these years,
Fourteen seasons erasing all fears.
Your gentle spirit forever will stay,
Guiding our hearts through each passing day.

Outro

Now you're running free, in fields so vast,
Jumping tall grass, a shadow cast.
Smelling everything, under skies so wide,
Peacefully sleeping, always by our side.

Outro - piano fade
