Seven's Gentle Morning

A Tribute Song

Intro - grand piano, soft pads

Verse 1

The day we met, a tiny, soft delight
You lay there, paws crossed, shining ever so bright
A little Cavapoo, with eyes so sweet and true
From that first glance, my heart belonged to you

Chorus

Oh Seven, my dear, for nine long years we'd share
A love so pure, beyond compare
My gentle friend, my comfort, my sweet boy
You filled my world with endless joy

Verse 2

Each morning came, with shadows soft and deep
At seven am, while the world was still asleep
You'd find your way, right by my head so near
Our morning cuddles, banishing all fear

Chorus

Oh Seven, my dear, for nine long years we'd share
A love so pure, beyond compare
My gentle friend, my comfort, my sweet boy
You filled my world with endless joy

Bridge

And though my arms can no longer hold you close
A final whisper, the one my heart still knows
"Mommy loves you, and will come find you"

Seven's Gentle Morning (continued)

"Up in the heavens, my sweet boy, it's true."

Instrumental - electric guitar, strings

Final Chorus

Oh Seven, my dear, for nine long years we'd share
A love so pure, beyond compare
My gentle friend, my comfort, my sweet boy
You filled my world with endless joy

Outro

Now you are running, free beyond the gate
Eating all your treats, a joyful, happy state
A peaceful dream, beneath the endless skies
My beloved Seven, with love that never dies.

Outro - grand piano fade
