Hudson's Everyday Sun

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

The sun would rise, a brand new day
You were right there, never far away
On dusty sites, my loyal guide
In the truck seat, right by my side
Your white fur gleamed, a happy sight
I'd hold your paw, morning till night
Then to the lake, cool water's call
You'd swim with joy, giving your all.

Chorus

Oh, Hudson, my friend, my heart's true beat
Twelve long years, bittersweet
Every memory, a golden thread
Still hear your footsteps in my head.

Verse 2

At 5:30, the alarm would chime
A sleepy cuddle, our precious time
I'd wake you up, a gentle nudge
No morning grumble, no holding grudge
Ready for work, eager and bright
You filled my days with pure delight
A gentle soul, a trusting gaze
Through all the changes, all our days.

Chorus

Oh, Hudson, my friend, my heart's true beat
Twelve long years, bittersweet

Hudson's Everyday Sun (continued)

Every memory, a golden thread
Still hear your footsteps in my head.

Verse 3

We wandered paths, in parks so green
The best companion I'd ever seen
You'd sniff the air, explore with glee
Sharing the world, right there with me
Every new smell, a story told
More precious than silver or pure gold.

Chorus

Oh, Hudson, my friend, my heart's true beat
Twelve long years, bittersweet
Every memory, a golden thread
Still hear your footsteps in my head.

Bridge

Thank you for being my very best friend
A love like ours, it will never end
I love you, Hudson, with all my might
And I'll find you again in that shining light.

Instrumental - banjo, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Hudson, my friend, my heart's true beat
Twelve long years, bittersweet
Every memory, a golden thread
Still hear your footsteps in my head.

Outro - guitar fade

Now you run free, in clouds so high
With Nana there, beneath heaven's sky
Remembering fields, the parks we'd roam
Every scent you sniffed, guiding me home.
Run on, my boy, run free and deep
While in my heart, your memories I keep.

Forever in our hearts
