Luna's Gentle Glow

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, cello

Verse 1

The day we met, my heart knew true,
A beautiful sight, my sweet Luna, you.
With floppy ears and eyes so deep,
A promise of love my soul would keep.
Your fur like silk, a gentle grace,
A warm companion in every place.
A cocker's spirit, soft and kind,
The truest friend I'd ever find.

Chorus

Oh, Luna, my sweet girl, my guiding star,
No matter how close, no matter how far.
Fourteen years and ten months, a lifetime to hold,
A story of love, more precious than gold.

Verse 2

Each morning sun, each setting light,
You'd greet me always, with all your might.
A wagging tail, a joyful sound,
The happiest welcome, always profound.
You'd lean into my gentle hand,
The best listener in all the land.
A furry shadow, always near,
Banishing every doubt and fear.

Chorus

Oh, Luna, my sweet girl, my guiding star,
No matter how close, no matter how far.

Luna's Gentle Glow (continued)

Fourteen years and ten months, a lifetime to hold,
A story of love, more precious than gold.

Bridge

Now peaceful sleep has set you free,
No more pain, just serenity.
My final whisper, soft and true,
My dearest Luna, I love you.

Instrumental - piano, synth pad

Final Chorus

Oh, Luna, my sweet girl, my guiding star,
No matter how close, no matter how far.
Fourteen years and ten months, a lifetime to hold,
A story of love, more precious than gold.

Outro - piano fade

Though silence rests where you once lay,
Your spirit dances, light and gay.
In fields of dreams, you run and play,
Until we meet again someday.

Forever in our hearts
