Bella's Soft Breath

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

I remember the day your big heart first appeared,
A beautiful face, no doubt, allayed all my fears.
With floppy soft ears and a spirit so bright,
You filled every corner with your joyous light.

Chorus

Oh, Bella, sweet Bella, my dear loyal friend,
Six wonderful years, right until the end.
Though grief may still linger, a tear in my eye,
Your love will live on, never truly say goodbye.

Verse 2

I recall snuggling close, a moment so true,
Your soft breath on my face, a comfort brand new.
You'd sleep upside down, a sight always grand,
The dearest companion throughout the whole land.

Chorus

Oh, Bella, sweet Bella, my dear loyal friend,
Six wonderful years, right until the end.
Though grief may still linger, a tear in my eye,
Your love will live on, never truly say goodbye.

Bridge

I love you with all of my heart, it's so plain to see,
So sorry, sweet girl, I couldn't set you free.
My biggest regret, a sorrow so deep,

But the promises made, I forever will keep.

Instrumental - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Final Chorus

Oh, Bella, sweet Bella, my dear loyal friend,
Six wonderful years, right until the end.
Though grief may still linger, a tear in my eye,
Your love will live on, never truly say goodbye.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade

Now you're running free, in the bush, wild and bold,
Chasing kangaroos, a story untold.
Then sleeping so peaceful, upside down, without strife,
A beautiful spirit, in the next life.

Forever in our hearts
