Junior's Sunshine Sign

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

Sunrise on the ramp at seven, a bark to start the day
If dinner was just minutes late, you always had your say
You'd lay across my beating chest, your safe place, warm and deep
Then stare at me in the living room, a promise I would keep
My legs you'd lick when from the shower, a secret, sweet hello
And every time the door would crack, you'd try to make a go
We grew up, just the two of us, through all my changing years
My little bunny, my whole world, I'd quiet all your fears

Chorus

Oh, Junior, my sweet Junior, for nineteen years you stayed
A loyal heart, a gentle soul, a life so bravely made
You were my sunshine through it all, my reason to believe
The best good boy I've ever known, for you my heart still grieves

Verse 2

The best part was just coming home, to find you by my side
Our morning breakfasts, evening meals, with nowhere left to hide
Those Dunkin runs, a secret treat, your bark for McDonald's call
Though I'd try to hide the golden bag, you smelled it through it all
Your three-tiered plate, a royal feast, your choices made with care
Farmers Dog or Science Diet, love beyond compare
I'd do anything to make you smile, my leather lips, my boy
Even miss your loud, sweet snores, my everyday true joy

Chorus

A loyal heart, a gentle soul, a life so bravely made

You were my sunshine through it all, my reason to believe
The best good boy I've ever known, for you my heart still grieves

Verse 3

From Alabama, one small pup, that first kiss, love so true
You'd chew my suits, then sneak under covers, just me and you
Though you'd pull your paw, or turn your head, a genius, smart and grand
You'd give me side-eye when I sang, the man of the house, my man
When my calf was torn, a hidden grace, a month of precious time
You pawed my hair to wake me up, a melody sublime
And now your date, in Roman script, where your sweet head would rest
A sacred bond, my dearest boy, forever truly blessed

Bridge

"Stay with me," my final whisper, "I hope you know my love"
"I hope you're happy, little one, watching from above"
That life-changing promotion came, the day before you flew
It felt as if your job was done, you knew I'd see it through
Then Dunkin workers sang our song, "You Are My Sunshine" bright
And bunnies run and sit and stare, filling days with light

Instrumental - piano, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Oh, Junior, my sweet Junior, for nineteen years you stayed
A loyal heart, a gentle soul, a life so bravely made
You were my sunshine through it all, my reason to believe
The best good boy I've ever known, for you my heart still grieves

Outro

Now endless pup cups fill your days, my beautiful boy, it's true
One last brave treat, you finished it, a good baby through and through Running free, beyond the stars, no goodbyes to pretend
Just love and light, my dearest friend. [acoustic guitar fade]

Forever in our hearts
