Maestro's Gentle Healing

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

An elderly boy, a gentle soul,
You chose our home, made our lives whole.
The first time we met, a sweet surprise,
You climbed my shoulder, met my eyes.
Though your sight was dim, your spirit bright,
A tuxedo cat, a guiding light.
You came to us, a precious gift,
Our weary spirits, you helped to lift.

Chorus

Oh, Maestro, our dear friend,
Two loving years, a gift you sent.
With every purr, a gentle art,
You found a way to heal our heart.

Verse 2

You waited by the door each day,
To greet me when I came from play.
Our evening cuddles, soft and deep,
While city secrets fell asleep.
Though blind, the outdoors brought you joy,
A curious, adventurous boy.
Your gentle presence, warm and true,
Each quiet moment, a dream come true.

Chorus

Oh, Maestro, our dear friend,
Two loving years, a gift you sent.

With every purr, a gentle art,
You found a way to heal our heart.

Bridge

Thank you for healing our hearts, so true,
For every day we spent with you.
Have fun listening to the birds, my dear,
Until we meet again, someday, somewhere.

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Maestro, our dear friend,
Two loving years, a gift you sent.
With every purr, a gentle art,
You found a way to heal our heart.

Outro

Now watching over, a guiding grace,
Resting in sunlight, in that peaceful place.
A sunbeam waiting, soft and deep,
While quiet memories we will keep.

Outro - guitar fade
