Fred's Forever Smile

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

Remember Fred, our big Bassgle boy,
A sixty-pound bundle of pure joy.
He'd climb onto laps, without a care,
A giant lap dog, beyond compare.
Or flop on the ground for a belly rub sweet,
No one could ever deny that treat.

Chorus

Oh, Fred, our sweet Fred, with a heart so wide,
Twelve years, almost thirteen, right by my side.
You filled every moment with laughter and grace,
Leaving a smile on every face.

Verse 2

We spent every day, just me and you,
From office visits to working from home, it's true.
My constant companion, through thick and through thin,
Our favorite moments would always begin.
Every morning, every afternoon bright,
Basking together in your joyful light.

Chorus

Oh, Fred, our sweet Fred, with a heart so wide,
Twelve years, almost thirteen, right by my side.
You filled every moment with laughter and grace,
Leaving a smile on every face.

Bridge

Fred's Forever Smile (continued)

You did all the things you were meant to do,
And were loved beyond words, faithful and true.
I'll miss you always, my dear, it's true,
And thank you for sending our Olive new.

Instrumental - guitar, piano, light drums

Final Chorus

Oh, Fred, our sweet Fred, with a heart so wide,
Twelve years, almost thirteen, right by my side.
You filled every moment with laughter and grace,
Leaving a smile on every face.

Outro - guitar fade

Now with Porky, Joshua, Bagel, and Bobs,
And my Ma, beyond any earthly sobs.
Across the Rainbow Bridge, free and bright,
Running in pure, joyful light.

Forever in our hearts
