Poppy's Copper Glow

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

A flash of copper, a radiant gleam,
You stepped into our waking dream.
A spirited heart, so loyal and true,
With playful mischief in all that you'd do.
Little treasures would vanish from sight,
Buried with care beneath morning light.
Our sweet Pit Chow, a joy to behold,
A story of love, more precious than gold.

Chorus

Oh, Poppy, our Poppy, with a heart so grand,
For eight and a half years, you walked hand in hand.
Through every season, you lit up our days,
Your memory shines in a thousand sweet ways.

Verse 2

Before the world had fully awakened,
Our morning walks were a journey we'd taken.
The crisp, quiet air, the sun's gentle kiss,
Each moment with you, pure, unadulterated bliss.
You'd sniff every scent, watch shadows unfold,
A curious spirit, brave and so bold.
You taught us to cherish the quietest dawn,
And showed us true friendship right up until drawn.

Chorus

Oh, Poppy, our Poppy, with a heart so grand,
For eight and a half years, you walked hand in hand.

Through every season, you lit up our days,
Your memory shines in a thousand sweet ways.

Verse 3

You knew every trick, a clever display,
With high five and shake, you'd brighten our day.
Then kisses and hugs, a loving embrace,
A wide, happy smile on your beautiful face.
Your snacks you would share, with your three loving crew,
Just being together was all that you knew.
You'd chase rabbits and deer, through fields wide and free,
Then splash in the falls, for all eyes to see.

Bridge

Thank you for bringing such joy to our life,
Healing the sorrows, ending all strife.
We love you, dear Poppy, with every beat of our heart,
Forever a part of who we are.

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Poppy, our Poppy, with a heart so grand,
For eight and a half years, you walked hand in hand.
Through every season, you lit up our days,
Your memory shines in a thousand sweet ways.

Outro

Now chasing the squirrels through skies of blue,
Through tallest green grass, with flowers so new.
Running free, happy, a peaceful, sweet sleep,
Your love in our hearts, a promise to keep.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade
