Nelly's Field of Kisses

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

I remember that first day, your sweet face so near Snuggling close and chasing away every fear
A Dutch Shepherd's loyalty, a spirit so free
Your bright smile waited always, just for me
Running wild in the yard, a blur of happy grace
Leaving kisses softly, all over the place
You'd rub your face against us, a tender, loving sign
Oh, those early days, how they truly shined.

Chorus

Nelly, dear Nelly, my heart still knows your name
Six wonderful years, never quite the same
You filled every corner with joy and with light
A true best friend, shining ever so bright.

Verse 2

Our nightly cuddles, a ritual we'd keep
You'd come to bed beside us, just before we'd sleep
And that special chair where you'd wait for your meal
The little quirks and habits, so incredibly real
I can still picture you, with peanut butter sweet
A happy, wagging memory, oh, so complete
Every single moment, a treasure I hold deep Promises of devotion, your soft eyes would keep.

Chorus

Nelly, dear Nelly, my heart still knows your name
Six wonderful years, never quite the same

Nelly's Field of Kisses (continued)

You filled every corner with joy and with light
A true best friend, shining ever so bright.

Bridge

Thank you for six years, my loving, precious friend
I know this isn't truly, the final, bitter end
I'll find you again someday, beyond the sun's last gleam
We will be together forever, living out that dream.

Instrumental - banjo, acoustic guitar

Final Chorus

Nelly, dear Nelly, my heart still knows your name
Six wonderful years, never quite the same
You filled every corner with joy and with light
A true best friend, shining ever so bright.

Outro

Now you're running free in fields of endless play
Eating peanut butter, bright every single day
With all the other dogs, in heaven's golden light
Sleeping peacefully, waiting for that sight.

Outro - guitar fade
