Toby's Gentle Run

A Tribute Song

Intro - piano, soft strings

Verse 1

In seven years, a bond so true,
A Golden heart, a morning dew.
I see your gaze, a knowing plea,
Up to the pantry, just for me.
A hopeful glance, a wagging tail,
No joy on earth could ever fail.
That gentle spirit, soft and kind,
The bestest friend we'd ever find.

Chorus

Oh, Toby dear, our precious boy,
For seven years, you brought such joy.
A love like yours, so pure and deep,
A quiet promise we will keep.

Verse 2

Through sunlit panes, your vigil held,
Our loyal sentinel, never quelled.
You watched the road, so patiently,
Until we pulled into the drive, you see.
A happy bark, a joyful bound,
The sweetest welcome to be found.
Your constant love, a guiding star,
No matter where or how far.

Chorus

Oh, Toby dear, our precious boy,
For seven years, you brought such joy.

A love like yours, so pure and deep,
A quiet promise we will keep.

Bridge

You fought so bravely, with all your might,
But weary bones gave up the fight.
It broke our hearts to say goodbye,
Beneath the vast and endless sky.
We hold a hope, a gentle prayer,
To meet you again, somewhere out there.

Instrumental - piano, cello

Final Chorus

Oh, Toby dear, our precious boy,
For seven years, you brought such joy.
A love like yours, so pure and deep,
A quiet promise we will keep.

Outro

Now you run free, beyond the blue,
Through lush green grass, a dream come true.
No pain or sorrow, only peace,
A sweet repose, a soft release.

Outro - piano fade
