Chikis' Endless Fields

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, piano

Verse 1

I remember the day you came to me, a tiny flash of brown
Full of energy, so wild and free, the best pup in this town
Running through the grass with joyful leaps, your little paws so fast
Eating all your chicken while I watched, moments built to last
Your sweet kisses on my cheek, a comfort I could hold
That adorable little bark of yours, a story to be told.

Chorus

Oh, Chikis, my sweet Chikis, for fourteen years you stayed
My tiny guardian, my gentle bliss, a love that never swayed
You're in my heart, you're in my soul, a star up in the sky
My precious girl, you made me whole, a tear for you I cry.

Verse 2

We spent all our time together, you and I, a constant, faithful pair
Traveled everywhere beneath the sky, without a single care
Every car ride was an adventure new, nestled close by my side
Through winding roads and sunlit views, with nowhere left to hide
Your tiny spirit, brave and bold, a love so pure and deep
A cherished story to unfold, secrets that we'd keep.

Chorus

Oh, Chikis, my sweet Chikis, for fourteen years you stayed
My tiny guardian, my gentle bliss, a love that never swayed
You're in my heart, you're in my soul, a star up in the sky
My precious girl, you made me whole, a tear for you I cry.

My sweet Chikis, thank you for choosing me, my family, my dear
I'm sorry I couldn't keep you longer, banishing every fear
You knew you were deeply loved, I was with you 'til the end
Run free now, my beautiful girl, my baby, my truest friend.
No more pain, no struggle to breathe, in my heart you'll always stay
My little angel, my love, I'll see you again someday.

Instrumental - cello, piano

Final Chorus

Oh, Chikis, my sweet Chikis, for fourteen years you stayed
My tiny guardian, my gentle bliss, a love that never swayed
You're in my heart, you're in my soul, a star up in the sky
My precious girl, you made me whole, a tear for you I cry.

Outro

Now you're running through endless fields, with joy and perfect grace
A happy smile, all pain now yields, in that peaceful, loving place
You're at peace, I know it's true, until we meet again someday
My little angel, I'll remember you, in my heart you'll always stay.

Outro - acoustic guitar fade
