Doc's Sweet Howl

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

The first time that I heard your sound,
A howl for dinner, all around.
A Beagle's spirit, strong and true,
A Basset's low-slung, gentle view.
You'd sniff the air, a curious nose,
Where every scent a story shows.
A bark, a bay, a joyful plea,
You quickly captured all of me.

Chorus

Oh, Doc, my sweet, my gentle friend,
Our single year, it had to end.
But every moment, bright and clear,
Your loving spirit lingers here.

Verse 2

The kitchen clock would strike the hour,
And you'd unleash your mighty power.
A hungry howl, a hopeful gaze,
Through all our happy, fleeting days.
For special treats, a wagging tail,
No pleading words could ever fail.
The crunch of kibble, joyful sound,
The happiest dog in all the ground.

Chorus

Oh, Doc, my sweet, my gentle friend,
Our single year, it had to end.

Doc's Sweet Howl (continued)

But every moment, bright and clear,
Your loving spirit lingers here.

Bridge

Though silence fills the house today,
Your loving spirit still holds sway.
I whispered softly, in my heart's employ,
My dearest Doc, you are the best boy.

Guitar Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Doc, my sweet, my gentle friend,
Our single year, it had to end.
But every moment, bright and clear,
Your loving spirit lingers here.

Outro

Now running free, beyond the sky,
You're howling happy, way up high.
Begging the Lord for treats anew,
My sweet, beloved, faithful Doc, that's you.

Outro - guitar fade
