Queenie's Joyful Gaze

A Tribute Song

Intro - ukulele, acoustic guitar

Verse 1

A tiny shadow, a shih tzu's grace,
With such a sweet and loving face.
Twelve years began, a gentle start,
You quickly claimed my happy heart.
Those loving eyes, a soulful gaze,
Through all our sunlit, happy days.
When something special you would seek,
Your quiet language, pure and meek.

Chorus

Oh, Queenie, my dear Queenie, shining bright,
Twelve wonderful years, a pure delight.
Your memory dances, free and bold,
A precious story, to be told.

Verse 2

As evening fell, the day grew calm,
You'd settle softly on my arm.
On blankets soft, a special place,
For treats and cuddles, full of grace.
A tummy rub, a gentle purr,
The sweetest moments always were.
My little queen, so soft and warm,
You kept me safe from every storm.

Chorus

Oh, Queenie, my dear Queenie, shining bright,
Twelve wonderful years, a pure delight.

Your memory dances, free and bold,
A precious story, to be told.

Bridge

Though whispers fade and time moves on,
Your love's a light, a joyful dawn.
"Mummy's girl," I hear you say,
"Let me see you smile today."

Ukulele Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Queenie, my dear Queenie, shining bright,
Twelve wonderful years, a pure delight.
Your memory dances, free and bold,
A precious story, to be told.

Outro

Now free to roam, where joys reside,
With happy companions by your side.
Running fields, a gentle breeze,
At perfect peace beneath the trees.

Outro - guitar fade
