Kenji Pops' Lion Heart

A Tribute Song

Intro - grand piano, strings

Verse 1

Our little pocket rocket, swift and bright,
A sweet face shining, full of light.
A bulldog's spirit, gentle and so true,
With a lion's heart, in all you'd do.
You watched us with your soulful, trusting eyes,
A quiet love beneath the endless skies.
In every step, a loyal, steadfast friend,
A bond we knew would truly never end.

Chorus

Oh, Kenji Pops, our precious boy,
For nine sweet years, you brought us joy.
Your memory lives, a burning, tender flame,
Whispering softly your dear name.

Verse 2

Through sunny days, you'd follow close and near,
A loved companion, chasing every fear.
Then evening came, your favourite, quiet plight,
To snuggle deeply, holding us so tight.
Upon the sofa, in your chosen spot,
Our little guardian, loved a whole lot.
A comfort true, beyond what words can say,
You made us smile, truly, every day.

Chorus

Oh, Kenji Pops, our precious boy,
For nine sweet years, you brought us joy.

Kenji Pops' Lion Heart (continued)

Your memory lives, a burning, tender flame,
Whispering softly your dear name.

Bridge

We whisper now, "Be happy and pain free,"
"We'll see you again, little man, we agree."
Thank you for all the love you gave so true,
Our hearts still ache, missing you.
We love you so much, more than you knew,
Our days were brighter, just because of you.

Instrumental - cello solo, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Kenji Pops, our precious boy,
For nine sweet years, you brought us joy.
Your memory lives, a burning, tender flame,
Whispering softly your dear name.

Outro

Now running free, beyond the golden sun,
Playing and snuggling with our dear son Ben.
A heavenly reunion, sweet and deep and vast,
While in our hearts, your love will forever last.

Outro - grand piano fade

Forever in our hearts
