Roxy's Sweet Run

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, harmonica

Verse 1

The day you arrived, a whirlwind of grace,
A Hanging Tree Cattle Dog, with a smile on your face.
The best soccer player, with our sons you'd roam,
You rolled in the grass, making our house a home.
You chased the ball, with a happy bark and cheer,
Wiping away every worry and fear.
With boundless energy, you made our hearts gleam,
The glue to our family, a living, breathing dream.

Chorus

Oh, Roxy, sweet girl, our hearts still hold you near,
For thirteen happy years, you banished every tear.
A loyal companion, so loving and kind,
The best friend a family could ever find.

Verse 2

We'd find you sleeping, where our seat had been warm,
A cozy spot stolen, safe from any storm.
Then outside we'd sit, the sun on our faces,
Sharing ice from my drink, in those peaceful spaces.
Your happy sigh, a comfort deep and true,
Every moment with you, a blessing shining through.
Each little quirk, a memory we treasure,
Filled our lives with joy beyond measure.

Chorus

Oh, Roxy, sweet girl, our hearts still hold you near,
For thirteen happy years, you banished every tear.

A loyal companion, so loving and kind,
The best friend a family could ever find.

Bridge

Now the sun shines on a different shore,
We whisper your name, wanting just one more.
Run free, sweet girl, across the sky so blue,
I love you so, Roxy, don't you know it's true!

Harmonica Solo

Final Chorus

Oh, Roxy, sweet girl, our hearts still hold you near,
For thirteen happy years, you banished every tear.
A loyal companion, so loving and kind,
The best friend a family could ever find.

Outro

Now you're running free, with your sister, Halle,
Across endless fields, for all eternity.
Peaceful and joyful, beneath heaven's light,
Our sweet Roxy, forever shining bright.

Outro - guitar fade
