Shayne's Everlasting Chase

A Tribute Song

Intro - acoustic guitar, banjo

Verse 1

The first time that I met you, a joyful sound so clear,
A little mixed-breed puppy, chasing away all fear.
With Aussie heart and Border wit, and Elk Hound spirit strong,
A Finnish Spitz's ancient call, where you truly did belong.
I remember your first howling, a song that filled the air,
A wild and happy welcome, a love beyond compare.
From that moment on I knew, you were meant to stay by me,
A loyal soul, a faithful friend, as wild and good as could be.

Chorus

Oh, Shayne, my dear old Shayne,
Fifteen and a half years, through sunshine and through rain.
Your spirit shines so brightly, a flame that won't depart,
Forever you're remembered, etched deep within my heart.

Verse 2

Five thousand days of working, you gave your very best,
Always by my side each day, you never took a rest.
From dawn till dusk, your watchful eyes, so steady and so true,
A tireless, loyal partner, in everything we'd do.
You taught me strength and patience, a bond so pure and deep,
While I was living out my life, your precious soul I'd keep.
Your quirky ways and loving gaze, a joy in every glance,
Giving every single day another joyful chance.

Chorus

Oh, Shayne, my dear old Shayne,
Fifteen and a half years, through sunshine and through rain.

Your spirit shines so brightly, a flame that won't depart,
Forever you're remembered, etched deep within my heart.

Bridge

And as you crossed the rainbow bridge, I whispered soft and low,
"Love you forever along with all my dogs," I know.
That sacred bond will never fade, a truth that will remain,
In every breath, in every thought, I'll call your cherished name.

Instrumental - harmonica, banjo

Final Chorus

Oh, Shayne, my dear old Shayne,
Fifteen and a half years, through sunshine and through rain!
Your spirit shines so brightly, a flame that won't depart,
Forever you're remembered, etched deep within my heart.

Outro

Now you're hunting small rodents, chasing turkeys in the sun,
Then curling up upon my bed, when all your day is done.
A peaceful dream, a happy chase, beneath a starlit sky,
Sweet Shayne, my precious companion, your memory will not die.

Outro - guitar fade
