Intro - piano, cello

Verse 1

A gentle click-clack on the floor,
The jingle collar, right at our door.
You followed close, a loving trace,
With tiny steps, you filled our space.
Always near, a furry friend so true,
Your softest ears, I'd run them through.
A fluffy comfort, day and night,
Our sweetest boy, our guiding light.

Chorus

Oh, Tucker, sweet Tucker, our dear friend,
Twelve loving years, until the end.
Your heart of gold, a faithful plea,
Forever etched in memory.

Verse 2

That happy dance when we walked in,
A joyful welcome, where to begin.
You'd coax us close, a gentle sigh,
To snuggle up, beneath the sky.
A loving buddy, soft and deep,

Tucker's Softest Embrace (continued)

Our little kitten, you would keep.
No complaints, just purest love,
A precious gift from up above.

Chorus

Oh, Tucker, sweet Tucker, our dear friend,
Twelve loving years, until the end.
Your heart of gold, a faithful plea,
Forever etched in memory.

Verse 3

That gentle touch, a constant plea,
Always so close, beside with me.
Your furry head upon my lap,
A peaceful comfort, a quiet nap.
Those trusting eyes, a loving stare,
A sweet companion beyond compare.
Though moments pass and seasons turn,
A lesson in pure love, we learn.

Bridge

A final whisper, soft and true,
Good boy, dear Tucker, we love you.
Though silence now fills every room,
Your gentle spirit lifts the gloom.

Instrumental - piano, strings

Final Chorus

Oh, Tucker, sweet Tucker, our dear friend,
Twelve loving years, until the end.
Your heart of gold, a faithful plea,
Forever etched in memory.

Outro

Now in the sun, on endless grass,
Where gentle breezes softly pass.
A brand new friend, you wait to greet,
Our dearest Tucker, calm and sweet.

Outro - piano fade
